duty at any cost.

The Czar's courage has never been and could never have been, questioned. But it would be going too far to say that he was wholly unaffected by the terrible events in which he was a spectator or an actor. A well known writer on Russia and the Russians, who almits to the full the late Czar's personal bravery, has pointed out how shaken his nerves had been by that grim haunting spectre behind the throne. Any man who saw, as he did, his own father muthated and bleeding to death, who himself more than once marrowly escaped a similar fate, whose train and rallway carriage were blown to shreds, whose wife stood trembling in the desolate steppe among fragments and corpses, and whose bright little daughter threw her bands round his neck, and exclaimed amid sobs, "Oh, papa, now they'll come and murder us all!"—a man who has had such experiences as these may sure between the

ARREST OF CAPT. DREYFUSS.

It Proves to be a Seasation—France's Military Secrets Divelged,

PARIS, Nov. 1.—The arrest of Captain Alfred Drey tuss, of the general staff, on the charge of treason and espionage, on hehalf of the Triple Alliance, is the ser-sation of the hour. The Captain was attached to the organizing and mobilizing department of the general staff, and in this capacity had access to some of the most important documents relating to the plans for mobilizing the French army. Suspicion against Captain Dreyfuss was aroused by his intimacy with the Italian officer, and General Mercier, Minister of War, caused detectives to be sent to Monaco and to Italy, with the result that Captain Dreyfuss is now under strict guard in military prison. Captain Dreyfuss is said to have supplied the Italian officer alluded to, who is believed to have been a secret agent of the Italian Government, with plans for the mobilization of the Fifteenin army corps, covering the departments of the Maritime, Alps, Ardeche Bouches Du Rhome, Corsica, Gard Var, Vauckiuse, and Marsellies, as well as with plans for mobilizing the French forces around Briancon Alpine Gibraliar. He is also suspected of having furnished Italian agents with plans of numerous fortitled positions around Briancon, which are connected by undergound galleries, with the town mentioned Riancon is a place of utmost importance, especially in view of the possible advance of the Italian army into France.

for the Democrats.

MR. ETAN IN WARRINGTON.

MR. William Ryan, Collector of Internal Revenue, is in the city. He came up to confer with Commissioner Miller about the income-tax books, which will shortly be opened in the internal revenue office. The Commissioner could not suspent how much extra force Mr. Ryan would be allowed. The number of men might be two, or it might be three or four. Very much would depend upon the liberality of Congress in making the appropriation, it is safe to say, however, that Virginia, including both internal revenue districts—Ryan's and Shepparife—will be allowed four extra men for the incometax business. The appointments will be made by the collectors.

Mr. Ryan and Commissioner Miller called on Senator Faulkner at Democratic beadquarters and had a long talk with that gentleman on the congressional outlook. A gentleman said:

"The Senator and Mr. Miller both agreed that West Virginia would return a full Democratic delegation. Miller, like Fauikner, is a West Virginian, and is well posted on his State. The West Virginia majorities will be small, as they always are, but no amount of money will emible the Republicans to capture a single district there. Senator Faulkner looks for a solid Democratic delegation from Virginia, too. He recognized the fact that Ottey is having a hard fight, but he thinks that he will be able to pull through. He vas in receipt of information to-day which assured him of Democratic delegation from Virginia, too. He recognized the fact that Ottey is having a hard fight, but he thinks that he will be able to pull through. As to the South generally he is not only hopeful, but confident that there will be interested in the Ninth district. one congressman in his State, probably none.

"Democrats are afraid that Tom Watson, of Georgia, will be elected over his Democratic opponent. New York city will return a solid Democratic delegation, and the State of New York will send almost, if not quite, a full Democratic delegation. The stuation is inversing every day, and the next House will have a good working majority on the Democratic side.

WHY CLEVELAND IS SILENT.

"While many people," said the same gentleman, "are disposed to bet against hill's election to the New York Governorship, Hill has a splendid fighting chance. A prominent administration politician said to-day that with the exception of Peckham and one or two other Cleveland men, Mr. Cleveland's friends in New York were working exmestly for Hill's success. This gentleman remarked that the President would have come out in a letter for Hill had the Hill representatives started at him in the right way. They clamored too vehemently for an expression. My authority says that Mr. Cleveland did not like the idea of his Democracy being questioned, and that he became offended at the way certain people were trying to force him to write a letter. He says that the President is really giad at heart to see his partisans working for Hill."

day. MR. JONES' DISTRICT.

Of Congressman Jones' re-election, Mr.

M. B. Rowe, of Fredericksburg, says there is not a doubt, but his large majority of two years ago may be cut down slightly. Confidence has made our people somewhat careless, and as the result of the election is already assured, some may stay away from the polis on election-day, of course, the hitherto untried election law, passed at the last session of the Legislature, is an unknown factor, and we really do not know which party it will benefit. One thing, however, is certain—its provisions will be carried out with the utmost fairness in our section, as the managers of the Democratic party are determined not to allow even the shadow of suspicion to overcloud the purity of the ballot-box. The men selected as special constables in my county are of the highest order of integrity, and are acceptable even to the Republican managers. There will be no tampering with the voters, and no illiterate voter will be defrauded of his vote. We are going to re-elect Congressman Jones by a handsome majority, gotten fairly and honestly, and our Republican friends will not be given an opportunity to charge, or even cry fraud at any voting precinct in our section.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Nov. 1.—As passenger train No. 3 on the Kanass City. Memphis and Birmingham railway pulled out of the station at New Albany, Miss., at 1 o'clock this morning three masked men jumped on the engine, and, entering the cab, covered Engineer Campbell and Fireman Alexander with pistois. The robbers commanded the engineer to stop the train when it had reached a point half a mile from the station. The engineer and fireman were compelled to dismount from the locomotive, and, under cover of revolvers, were marched back to the express car and ordered to break open the door of the car with a coal pick.

The train crew were alarmed at the stopping of the train at this unusual place, and Conductor W. B. Leonard went forward to investigate. When he showed up at the express car door the robbers fired a shot at him, and he fled back to the coaches. Then the robbers fired a volley in the air to intimidate the rest of the crew and passengers.

An entrance was finally effected into the express car, and Messenger Genette was covered with pistols and forced to hand out the contents of the safe. The robbers then backed out of the car and jumped from the platform, still holding their pistols toward the messenger and eaginemen.

The robbers are believed to be farmers living in the vicinity of the hold-up. THE AXPRESS CAR LOOTED.
